BIOGRAPHY

CHAD WELLER | 2023

My name is Chad Weller and I want to share an honest truth with you for a moment. I wasn't always in the best place nor mindset in my life. I also was stuck, lost, disconnected and lacking the tools and motivation to find a better way or even knowing the first steps on how to get unstuck and start optimizing my health, wealth, relationships, mindset and levels of purpose and satisfaction in life.

I modeled for some of the top designers around the world, am a former pro-athlete, launched and sold multiple businesses, restaurants and organizations making 6- and 7-figure margins. I also felt empty, alone, lost, abusing substances, not wanting to live and without a clear vision of who I was, let alone who I wanted to become.

It was a car accident that nearly ended my life — THAT was my breaking point and I knew I had a choice: to stay as I was on the same empty path barely living; or, to choose differently and adapt a new lifestyle if I wanted to live and step into my potential power that I honestly longed for.

After years and countless hours of learning, self work and inner discovery to break free from the past emptiness inside, I knew I could empower others who needed a similar light on their path leading to greater life satisfaction, health and overall performance.

Today, I'm a thriving Master Life Coach helping open-minded individuals looking for the tools to become a high-performer and achiever in life. You want to have better relationships with your partner or potential partner. You want to achieve the next level in your career, or perhaps discover what that is. You want to level-up your health, nutrition and fitness regime.

I'm here to share, you're not alone, you can choose to create a change, you don't need to have the answers, there's nothing wrong with you, you didn't mess up and I'm here to empower you as a master life coach with the tools to guide you to a find your true inner self and achieve your highest life potential.
